Embroidered Cork Tray + Embroidered Cork Keychain

Instructions No. 1328

Difficulty: Beginner

Cork is a natural and noble trendy material that can be used in many different ways in the handicraft sector. Whether an embroidered cork tray or a chic cork key ring - the wow-effect is guaranteed! We show you in these instructions how you can easily recreate the fashionable decorative accessories.

And it's that easy:

Cork tray

First cut the Cork fabric towards the inner dimensions of the tray. Now place the template on the fabric and mark the stitch holes of the cross stitches on the cork. The best way to do this is to use a Pin

Then embroider the Cork fabric according to the template just applied with the Embroidery twist Of your choice.

Next, glue the embroidered Cork fabricto the tray bottom using the cork glue. To add more colourful accents, you can add matching colour to the tray handles, Embroidery twist wrap.

Keychain

First, cut two Cork fabric-sections, a cork circle and a corresponding Felt octagon according to the templates for the key rings

Now take the cork circle and mark the stitch holes for the cross stitches . Next you embroider this with the Embroidery twist Of your choice.

With the Felt sheet do the same

Now glue the felt section in the middle of the embroidered cork pendant. Then glue the two larger cork sections together with the backsides and the cork circle on the front side

After the glue has dried, punch a hole in the pendant and pull the key ring through it - done!
