Instructions No. 2754

Difficulty: Beginner

Working time: 1 hour

Now that's a nice surprise. The boxes, in which you can wonderfully place a small Easter gift, are cutely decorated on the outside with bunnies made of wooden balls. They can be used as box decoration as well as the sole star of the table decoration or as a small present. Even little Easter fans can make the wooden bunnies with a little help.

This is how to make the cute bunny boxes:

First glue the wooden balls together with hot glue. Make sure that the holes in the balls point upwards or downwards for a better stand and for the ears.

Now transfer the templates to the cardboard and cut out the ears. Glue the pairs of ears together at the bottom of the tips. Now place them in the hole of the bunny heads and fix them all with craft glue. Then glue the flowers to the bunnies with a little hot glue as desired.

Stamp your desired stamp motifs and lettering onto the tags and glue them onto the lids of the boxes. Finally, stick the bunnies onto the tags and your beautifully simple Easter boxes are ready.

Tip: The bunnies also look great as decorations on the Easter table!
