Advent calendar from storage jars

Instructions No. 2610

Difficulty: Beginner

Working time: 8 Hours

Sweeten the Christmas season for your loved ones with a homemade Advent calendar. The storage jars were designed with frost-effect paint and then decorated with handmade Advent numbers. The jars can be filled with small gifts and sweets as desired.

Design Advent Calendar

Punch out stars in different sizes from vinyl foil. Remove the protective film and stick the stars onto the jars.

Now dab all the glasses with frost effect paint and let it dry. Carefully remove the vinyl film from the glasses.

To make the frost-effect paint last, bake it in the oven at 160 °C for 30 minutes. Afterwards, the glasses can be washed by hand.

However, if you want to use the jars for other purposes after Advent, just let the paint dry.

For the Advent numbers, punch out 12 large stars and circles from white card. Cover another white cardboard with gold vinyl foil and punch out 12 stars and circles again.

Label the stars with the numbers 1 to 24 and then stick the labelled stars onto the circles using 3D adhesive pads.

Then fix the circles to the lids with 3D adhesive pads as well.

Cut strips (5 x 20 cm) from the crepe paper and place them on the inside of the jars.

Now you can fill the jars with small gifts or treats as you like.
