Aufbewahrungs-Boxen im Fabrik-Stil

Instructions No. 389

Difficulty: Beginner

In these large, stable boxes you have plenty of room for everything that should always be within reach. The large surfaces are also great for and and offer Board paint Magnetic paint even more space for notes.

It'sthat simple

Paint one side of the standing collector with 2 - 3 layers Magnetic paint and let it dry. Apply Board paint once or twice on the fronts of the two collectors, paint the other sides and the magnetic surface red or blue as desired. First prime the lid of the storage box and the inner surface of the scrap paper collector in grey and paint it silver after drying.

Tear off individual sections from Napkin , remove the white layers of paper and stick the printed layer onto the lid with Napkin varnish . Glue masking tape around the lid and, if you like, also on individual areas.

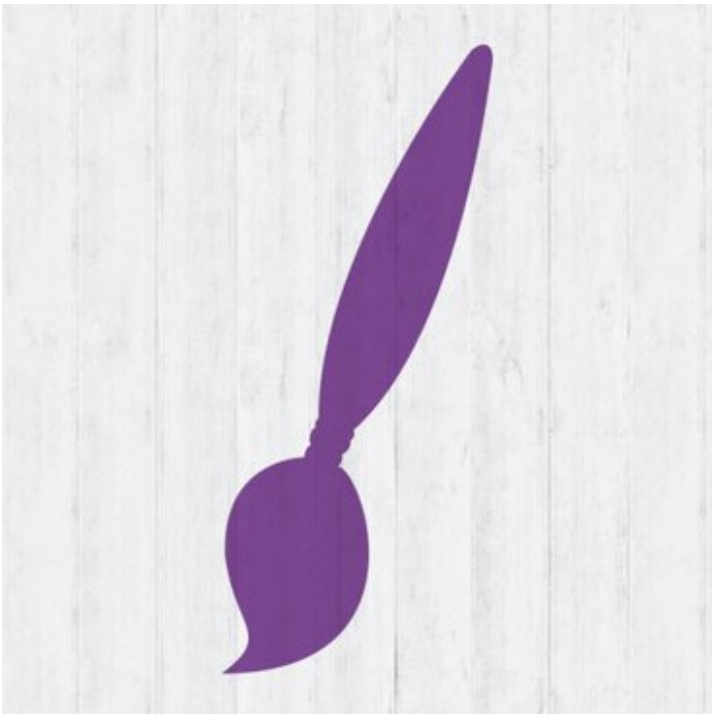

Used optics

Roughly grind all edges with a sanding block to create artificial traces of use, which can also be highlighted by wiping over with stamping ink. Finally cut the grey Felt to size and glue it with Handicraft glue into the storage box, so nothing can slip and rattle.

This idea is timelessly beautiful!
