Cards + Notebook with Cork Paper

Instructions No. 1350

Difficulty: Advanced

Working time: 30 Minutes

Cork paper works great on self-made greeting cards and scrapbook albums! The current trend material is available in many different designs. These instructions will certainly inspire you to make your own cork creations.

To recreate our decoration game you need Scrapbook album, greeting cards and cork paper, colorful gift tags, cork ribbons and balls, quilting stickers, some craft paper and possibly some ribbon. Tools are pencil, ruler, scissors, Handicraft glue and a black Ink Pads.

Here's how it's done

Scrapbook Album

For the passepartout album, cut a frame from pastel-coloured craft paper. Color the edges of the paper (just wipe over the edges with a Ink Pads) and glue the paper frame on. Next, measure a slightly smaller frame on the cork paper, cut it out and fix the cork on the paper frame. The passepartout cutout can be filled with printed cork as desired

Pennants are now cut from coloured gift tags. These work particularly well if the edges are also coated with stamping ink. Now pull the gift tags onto a cork ribbon and arrange them as a pennant chain on the book. Cut the Ribbon to the appropriate length, tie a knot at the ends and fix it to the corners of the album with Handicraft glue or hot glue. Finally, place a quilling sticker on each pennant (these are self-adhesive) and arrange a small bow on the scrapbook corner.

Greeting cards
Let your imagination run wild: cut cork paper to make a decorative cover sheet for your card. Simply stick coloured Paper matching the card onto the cork as decorative Application . Now you can decorate the card according to your taste with cork letters, punched out motifs or with quilling stickers

Tip: Small gift tags together with cork ribbon are very decorative. Cork ribbons and balls in the folded seam of the card also look great and at the same time ensure that the insert sheet inside the card does not slip.

This idea is timelessly beautiful!
