Glass bottles in glitter look

Instructions No. 2344

Difficulty: Beginner

Working time: 1 hour

You don't want to toast the New Year with ordinary champagne glasses? Then we have this great idea for you! Because the glass bottles in glitter look are made in one hour and provide a noble eye-catcher on the table on New Year's Eve.

Simple DIY idea

1. Spray the bottles with metal leaf effect spray and leave to dry. Want extra glitter? Spray the bottles with some spray glue and sprinkle loose glitter into the glue while it is still wet.

2. Tie straws to the bottles with organza ribbon.

3. Ultimate host tip: write the recipe of the previously poured drink on paper, roll it up and tie it to the bottles as well.

This idea is quick and easy to implement and is an absolute eye-catcher on the set table on New Year's Eve.
