What a surprise! When the recipient opens the box, the various compartments and layers unfold. The exploded box is a wonderful gift idea, for example as a voucher. In this tutorial, we give you some inspiration on how to decorate the box beautifully in the theme of lavender and Provence. With some real lavender flowers you can even make the box smell good!

The kraft paper explosion box comes with lots of little extras. The box contains 12 solid pockets, a small box that fits exactly in the middle and 12 decorative elements in different shapes and sizes.

In our decoration example, we have selected various papers from the scrapbook block, cut them to size and stuck them to the individual parts of the explosion box using craft glue and 3D adhesive pads.

Decorative elements, lace ribbons, scatter pieces and miniatures can be used as further accessories. These are also glued on as decorations with a little craft glue. Using stencils and paint also gives a great effect.

In the middle of the box we have created a garden made of grass ribbon and miniature elements as a special eye-catcher. For this, stick the grass ribbon in the middle of the box and complete it with lavender flowers. The miniature bicycle has been adapted to the Provence landscape with spray paint in lavender. Stick the bicycle into the grass and decorate it with a handlebar bucket painted white, lavender flowers and scatter pieces.

The exploded box makes a wonderful gift, as it also offers space for loving messages, personal photos, some money or a voucher.
