Sommerlicher Schmuck

Instructions No. 1781

Difficulty: Beginner

Working time: 1 hour

Homemade jewellery is totally in trend. With natural pearls, various pendants or connectors and with colourful tassels, bracelets, anklets, but also earrings and necklaces look great. You can knot your dreamlike summer jewellery yourself in the most different ways.

The different bracelets can be made in many different ways. Whether with simple leather straps and natural-coloured wooden beads or with gaudy nylon cords and chic charm connectors. In addition, coloured tassels or pendants can be integrated into the bracelets at will. You brought some shells with you from your last holiday? You can also use them as pendants. Clean the shells a bit beforehand, drill through them with a fine jewelry drill and attach an eyelet.

Absolutely hip are also bracelets that are knottedMacramé with the -technique. target= you will

First cut four approx. 1 m long pieces of Cotton cord off. Use the techniqueMacramé to knot a strand about 6 cm long, depending on the size of the toe

To do this, always take the left outer thread and knot it individually around all other threads. Repeat this procedure until you have the desired length. Make sure that you always take the left outer thread

Then knot the strands and reduce them to 2 ribbons. Cut off the protruding ribbons and cover this area with some Textile glue fix it. Now thread one on Pearl and knot the two stands with Macramé.

Tie the leaf tag. Attach another Cord one to the other side of the pendant and thread three more beads. Tie a small lasso knot. Attach more beads or connectors as desired

The fastener is formed with a so-called lasso knot.
