

Woven bracelet made from Rocailles beads

Instructions No. 584

Difficulty: Advanced

Along with pottery, this Weaving is one of the oldest crafts of mankind. Already in ancient Egypt, garments were woven. Whereas in the past, fabrics were almost exclusively produced on large looms, hand weaving is mostly practised as a craft in the 21st century. With unusual material mixes, creative individual pieces with a special aura are created. A special genre is jewellery weaving. On a pearl weaving frame, shiny Rocailles pearls are used to create a summery look Bracelet, that is guaranteed to attract attention.

making a knot in each half. Then knot both halves with a double knot, including a lobster clasp. Now shorten the remaining warp threads up to the knot. On the other side of the bracelet knot all warp threads together, then cut off 1 cm before the knot

Finally fasten a connecting cap with a strip at the end of the warp threads.
