

TEA

The image displays the word "TEA" in a large, hollow, sans-serif font. Each letter is defined by a thick black outline. Along every segment of this outline, there are small, evenly spaced black dots. This design is intended to facilitate tracing the letters, likely for educational purposes such as teaching handwriting or letter recognition to young children. The letters are positioned horizontally and are well-separated from each other.